Please Pray for Our Sick

Very Rev. Charles Viviano and all those who are facing illness today.

Dear God, we place our worries in Your hands. We place our sick under Your care and humbly ask that You restore Your servants to health again.

Remember Our Recently Deceased

Let us say a special prayer for those who have died without knowing love and mercy in this world.

Pope's Prayer Intentions

February—Listen to the Migrants' Cries

We pray that the cries of our migrant brothers and sisters, victims of criminal trafficking, may be heard and considered.

March—Catholics in China

We pray that the Church in China may persevere in its faithfulness to the Gospel and grow in unity.

We Are Called To Serve. . .

We invite you to take an active role at St. Frances Xavier Cabrini by joining one of our liturgical ministries. All who are gathered are called to play a part in the continued formation of this, your parish community. How is God calling you to share your time and talents with us?

If you have signed up for a ministry and have not been contacted, please sign up again since some email addresses and phone numbers are not working when we reach out.

*Extraordinary
Minister of Holy Communion
Training*

SATURDAY, MARCH 7, 2020

9:00 AM - 12:00 PM

An Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion Training will be held on Saturday, March 7, 2020 from 9am—12pm. Training will be held at the Holiday Inn Express Conference Room (10115 William Carey Dr, Orlando, FL 32832).

In order to attend you must complete your online Safe Environment Training. You access it at orlandodiocese.org. You also need to complete the petition for EMHC and return it to Saint Cabrini for Fr. Charles' approval.

A Note About Our Liturgy

Our readings this week call us to a deep sense of love and mercy for everyone around us; our "good neighbors" and our "bad neighbors." In this, the final part of Jesus' "Sermon on the Mount," we hear God's teachings on Retaliation and Love of our Enemies. The first part of the Gospel includes the famous phrase "turn the other cheek." This is in stark opposition to the Old Testament teaching of "an eye for an eye." Jesus is telling us to look for our love for each person rather than retaliating against anyone who has wronged us. How often, when we feel wronged, do we think, "I wish the same would happen to them. . ." or "they'll get what they deserve. . .?" When we have these thoughts, are we "turning the other cheek" and showing mercy?

The second part of today's Gospel reminds us that to be God's children, we must show love to everyone, even those who hurt us. How can we be "light for the world" if we are not shining on everyone? Our psalm response, "the Lord is kind and merciful," reminds us of God's care for us, and in turn, we are to show kindness and mercy toward all. God forgives us for our failings and shortcomings, we must do the same to achieve the Kingdom. As it is written in the second reading, "... you are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwells in you."

Our readings this week are a perfect conclusion to Ordinary Time and sequitur into Lent. Over the 40 days of Lent, we prepare ourselves spiritually for Christ's death and resurrection. Let us use the "Sermon on the Mount," which we have heard over the last several weeks, as a road map to make this Lent fulfilling and a time of spiritual growth.

"Our church is moving to a new kind of church record keeping solution called Realm®. It primarily serves the administrative needs of our staff, but it also offers some exciting opportunities to support the way you are involved in our church. Not only will this improve work life for our ministry staff, it will make it easier for our church family to connect with each other, keep up with what's going on, and grow as a connected community of believers."

Email Margarita Casas at mcasas@orlandodiocese.org to start your registration with St. Cabrini.
