Please Pray for Our Sick

Very Rev. Charles Viviano and all those who are facing illness today.

Dear God, we place our worries in Your hands. We place our sick under Your care and humbly ask that You restore Your servants to health again.

Remember Our Recently Deceased

In your hands, O Lord, we humbly entrust our brothers and sisters. In this life you embraced them with your tender love; deliver them now from every evil and bid them eternal rest.

The old order has passed away: welcome them into paradise, where there will be no sorrow, no weeping or pain, but fullness of peace and joy with your Son and the Holy Spirit forever and ever. Amen.

"Our church is moving to a new kind of church record keeping solution called Realm®. It primarily serves the administrative needs of our staff, but it also offers some exciting opportunities to support the way you are involved in our church. Not only will this improve work life for our ministry staff, it will make it easier for our church family to connect with each other, keep up with what's going on, and grow as a connected community of believers."

A Note About Our Liturgy

How wonderful it is that we have a God who loves us so much that He died and rose for us. This week, as we listen to the readings, we are preparing for Jesus' resurrection and hope for the glory of God's second coming. Our Gospel reading ends with Jesus' foreshadowing to His disciples of His rising from the dead as He says "Do not tell the vision to anyone until the Son of Man has been raised from the dead." This vision which Matthew speaks of is the Transfiguration of Jesus, when He transformed in radiant glory and light before Peter, James, and John.

We are reminded in the psalm and the second reading that we are created and chosen by God to be with Him, and He is here to help us along the way. When we need strength to live a good life and discern where we are to go, Ps. 33 reminds us "God is our help and our shield. May your kindness, O LORD, be upon us who have put our hope in you." Even Timothy, in the second reading, writes that we should share our hardships with the Lord because He called us to a holy life. Even though Timothy was in prison when he wrote this letter; he still kept his faith and trusted in God's plan.

Do we trust in God's plan for us? Jesus revealed himself in the transfiguration; do we live in His radiance? As we journey through lent, let us remember that God is guiding us, His people, we who hope and look forward to His second coming.

We need your help!

Each weekend and Holy Day, we need to put together our worship space for mass. We are looking for volunteers to help set up and take down the sanctuary and greeting space before and after weekend masses. With a few people before 5:00 pm mass and after 10:30 mass, it only takes 15-20 minutes of your time and will help us in a big way. to sign up and for more information, see Phill after mass or email music@saintcabrinicatholic.org.

God's Gift of Forgiveness

A Pastoral Exhortation on the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

"Peace be with you!" With these words, the Risen Lord greeted his frightened Apostles in the Upper Room on the day of his Resurrection. They were troubled, anxious, and fearful—much like each one of us at some point in our lives. Christ repeated the words, "Peace be with you." But then he added, "Receive the holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them" (Jn 20:19-23).

What an extraordinary gift! The Risen Lord was proclaiming that all the suffering he had just endured was in order to make available the gifts of salvation and forgiveness. He wanted the Apostles to receive these gifts. He wanted them to become apostles of this forgiveness to others.

In the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation, also called confession, we meet the Lord, who wants to grant forgiveness and the grace to live a renewed life in him. In this sacrament, he prepares us to receive him free from serious sin, with a lively faith, earnest hope, and sacrificial love in the Eucharist. The Church sees confession as so important that she requires that every Catholic go at least once a year.¹ The Church also encourages frequent confession in order to grow closer to Christ Jesus and his Body, the Church. By the grace of the Holy Spirit, we seek forgiveness and repentance, let go of patterns of sin, grow in the life of virtue, and witness to a joyful conversion. Since the graces of the sacrament are so similar to the purpose of the New Evangelization, Pope Benedict XVI has said, "The New Evangelization . . . begins in the confessional!"²

We bishops and priests are eager to help you if you experience difficulty, hesitation, or uncertainty about approaching the Lord in this sacrament. If you have not received this healing sacrament in a long time, we are ready to

"He said to him, 'My son, you are here with me always; everything I have is yours. But now we must celebrate and rejoice, because your brother was dead and has come to life again; he was lost and has been found.'" (Lk 15: 31-32)

welcome you. We, whom Christ has ordained to minister this forgiveness in his name, are also approaching this sacrament, as both penitents and ministers, throughout our lives and at this special moment of grace during Lent. We want to offer ourselves to you as forgiven sinners seeking to serve in the Lord's name.

During Lent—in addition to the various penitential services during which individual confession takes place—we bishops and priests will be making ourselves available often for the individual celebration of this sacrament. We pray that through the work of the Holy Spirit, all Catholics—clergy and laity—will respond to the call of the New Evangelization to encounter Christ in the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation. Come to the Lord and experience the extraordinary grace of his forgiveness!
