PENTECOST SUNDAY

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

John 20: 19-23

My Dear Sisters & Brothers in Christ,

Happy Pentecost – the Birth(day) of the Church! As the Holy Spirit is poured out on the disciples, they are released from their disillusionments and fears as they are empowered to go out to preach the Good News – that the life of Christ is more powerful than death – and that those who believe will be saved. Dead-ends have become new beginnings and sunsets have been changed into dawns. Yes, on this day the Spirit overwhelms our timidity, our doubt, our anxiety – and sends us forth to become a living sign of the power of God manifest in lives of faith, hope and love. What a remarkable and bold acclamation and affirmation of who we are and what we believe! We are a community of people enlivened by the very Spirit of God and are called to a life of discipleship. The Church lives and breathes with vigor and strength. The life of the Risen Christ is made present in the community, which is the 'body' of the living Christ. And the 'body' will keep sparking because of the divine life that it bears.

Today we open our hearts to the Spirit of God poured out on us. It is the Spirit that renews and recreates. It is the Spirit that keeps giving birth to the Church. In that Spirit we celebrate what God is doing in us, and what God will always do in us, through us, and for us. In the Spirit, there is no time for despair but there is always the time to celebrate possibility. We cannot believe in the Resurrection of Jesus, without believing in the Church. It is Pentecost! Happy Birth(day)!

Peace, Prayers & All Good Things, Fr. Charles

Return To The Eucharist

ORLANDO | As cases of COVID-19 decrease and vaccinations increase, bishops across the U.S. are welcoming the faithful back to Church. In reflecting on the Easter readings from the Acts of the Apostles, Bishop John Noonan noted how the Apostles are fortified by reception of the Eucharist. "Most importantly, we come to understand through their own experience the gift of the Eucharist and while they provide for the physical nourishment of the many, the Eucharist becomes the source and summit of their daily living." That participation sustains and enables them "to be Christ to those whom they meet and seek."

Considering the bishop's invitation to physically return to Mass, many parishes are already seeing increased numbers of parishioners filling their pews while still maintaining safety protocols.....

Bishop Noonan understands that there will always be those who are too compromised to physically attend. In addressing this concern, he said, "If you are health fragile, that is if you are sick or homebound, please call your pastor to let him know of your situation... we want to pray with you and for you. It is also important for you to receive Jesus and we are working to reinstate the Ministry to the Sick so that you are fortified with the Gift of the Eucharist." .....

Bishop Noonan concluded his letter stating, "You do not need my permission to come to receive Jesus. God chose you to do so! I pray that your desire to draw near to God, to go and bear fruit that will remain, compels you to come to participate physically in the celebration of Mass, to be nourished by the Bread of Heaven to fulfill this appointment."
