SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"The apostles gathered around Jesus and reported to him all they had done and taught. Then, because so many people were coming and going that they did not even have a chance to eat, he said to them, 'Come with me by yourselves to a quiet place and get some rest.' So they went away by themselves in a boat to a solitary place. But many who saw them leaving recognized them and ran on foot from all the towns and got there ahead of them. When Jesus landed and saw a large crowd, he had compassion on them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd. So he began teaching them many things." Mark 6: 30-34

PASTOR'S CORNER

My Dear Sisters & Brothers in Christ,

The Gospel this weekend (Mark 6: 30-34) suggests that Jesus knew the trials of life and the value of rest. Every so often, Jesus and His disciples took a step back from their ministry. Maybe Jesus was teaching us that there is more to our lives than work. As people made in God's image, we need to rest – as well as work. A time of rest is an opportunity to look around and appreciate what we have been given. Yet Jesus' time of rest with His disciples was interrupted by people who sought Him out, and Jesus adjusted to that with great grace. Sometimes our plans for times of rest will be interrupted too and we have to adjust. Yet, we'll need to continue to seek out other times and places of rest. It's important for our well being.

I returned this past Monday from my Dad's Funeral and a couple of days with the family - to catch up on all the things I am behind on at the Parish. I do appreciate your patience with me and ask that you continue to keep me and my family in your prayers. And again, I am grateful for your supportive sympathy cards, Mass Intentions, and emails. Healing is a process that, as you know, is more bearable for those of us who believe. Thank God for Faith!

Peace, Prayers & All Good Things,

Fr. Charles

What is a Mass Intention?

Whenever a priest celebrates Mass, he has at least two specific intentions. The first intention is to celebrate the Mass according to the rubrics of the Church, provided by the Church. The second is to apply the grace of that Mass towards an intention or specific need. These are offered to God as either: 1) The remembering of the soul of a Deceased Person; or 2) The offering of a Special Intention for someone who is living, and may be facing challenges.

(Paraphrased from the Basilica of Saint Mary, Alexandria, VA)

How to Request a Mass Intention?

To request a Mass Intention, please email Fr. Charles at: FrCharles@SaintCabriniCatholic.org. In your email, remember to include: the name of the individual that you would like mentioned; whether they are (Repose of the Soul Of) Deceased; or (The Special Intention Of) Living; if you have a specific date & Mass time in mind; and your name & phone number. Normal Church protocol suggests that we announce one Intention (name) per Mass.

The Orlando Liturgical Conference is committed to evangelize, inspire, form and educate diverse liturgical ministers. Liturgy in Action: Claiming Our Baptism, the theme for the 2021 conference, will explore how liturgical ministry and liturgical participation is the response to our baptismal call to be "a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's own people".

FRIDAY, AUGUST 27, 2021 - 8:30 A.M. - 5:00 P.M.

Rev. Paul Turner

Clergy and all liturgical ministers will be nourished through participation in liturgical prayer and inspiring keynote presentations by Father Paul Turner, pastor of Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in Kansas City, Missouri and director of the Office of Divine Worship for the Catholic Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph. He holds a doctorate in sacred theology from Sant' Anselmo in Rome and is a prolific writer in the area of Liturgical Theology and praxis. Also, there will be a panel discussion addressing the celebration of liturgy in a post-pandemic world. Join us for the celebration of Mass; Midday Prayer; and Evening Prayer.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 28, 2021 - 8:00 A.M. - 2:30 P.M.

We welcome Liturgy Training Publications (LTP) to facilitate a day of enrichment for liturgical ministers with a focus on ministry and participation in response to our baptismal call to be "a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's own people". This day is meant to feed and nurture all liturgical ministers as we prepare to renew ourselves in liturgical service. Sessions will be led by Dr. Patricia Hughes and Michael Ruzicki of LTP.

Join us for the celebration of Mass, as well as further time for prayer and reflection.

Space is limited, so please register today!
