TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Jesus and his disciples went on to the villages around Caesarea Philippi. On the way he asked them, 'Who do people say I am?' They replied, 'Some say John the Baptist; others say Elijah; and still others, one of the prophets.' 'But what about you?' he asked. 'Who do you say I am?' Peter answered, 'You are the Messiah.' Jesus warned them not to tell anyone about him. He then began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests and the teachers of the law, and that he must be killed and after three days rise again. He spoke plainly about this, and Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. But when Jesus turned and looked at his disciples, he rebuked Peter. 'Get behind me, Satan!' he said. 'You do not have in mind the concerns of God, but merely human concerns.' Then he called the crowd to him along with his disciples and said: 'Whoever wants to be my disciple must deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. For whoever wants to save their life will lose it, but whoever loses their life for me and for the gospel will save it.'" Mark 8: 27-35

Deaconate Discernment Nights

The Diocese of Orlando has 250 permanent deacons and another 51 in formation. Diaconate Formation is a comprehensive Ministry formation process involving the four pillars of: Human, Spiritual, Pastoral, and Intellectual Formation. This 6-year Formation process prepares the future ordained Permanent Deacon for his lifelong Vocation and Ministry of: Liturgy, Word, and Charity. The Office of the Permanent Diaconate in the Diocese of Orlando is calling on its Church Communities to surface and bring forth reputable men - servants in the vineyard who are filled with the Holy Spirit - to discern a call to the Permanent Diaconate. Men seeking to discern this call are encouraged to first have an investigative inquiry and conversation with their pastor, followed by attending a Diaconate Discernment Night. Choose one of the six Discernment Sessions which will be held at Catholic Churches throughout the Diocese in September and October for the convenience of all.

Bishop Noonan

A Note From The Pastor...

My Dear Brothers & Sisters in Christ,

Thanks to everyone for remembering to lift up the priests of the Diocese of Orlando at our recent Convocation this past week (Sept. 7 thru 9). It's been three years since our last one. We had a wonderful opportunity, with Bishop Noonan at the helm, to get together again and spend some time in the brotherhood that we share - praying, attending Mass, breaking bread, socializing, resting, and listening to spiritual reflections by our guest presenter, Bishop William Wack (pronounced 'Walk'), CSC, from the Diocese of Pensacola-Tallahassee. This opportunity was appreciated by all.

I extend much gratitude to Dr. Joe & Guinevere Domingues as we Kick-Off our Inaugural 'Mini' Faith Formation this Sunday. A great amount of work went into putting together our Program from scratch and this husband and wife team have been superb in covering the many details that are involved. Thanks, Dr. Joe and Guinevere. We are so blest to have you and so appreciate your expertise!

To all of our children and parents I say, "We are so happy to be able to offer this Sacramental opportunity on a Parish level and are very excited for you as you begin (or continue) your journey to First Holy Communion and Confirmation. Have fun!"

To all of our catechists - "You are the Best! Thanks so much for stepping forward to share your knowledge, spirituality, and zest for life with our young parishioners!"

We look forward to the Inaugural Kick-Off of our R.C.I.C.; Youth Group; and R.C.I.A. Programs next month.

I would like to end this column by saying that with all that's been recently going on both here and afar, we take a solemn moment this weekend to remember the innocent victims of 9/11 - their family members & friends - and those who survived this tragic act 20 years ago - that will never be forgotten.

Peace, Prayers & All Good Things, Fr. Charles

TWENTY YEARS LATER
THE LONGEST SHADOW

Bishop Noonan respectfully asks all Catholic Churches in the Orlando Diocese to designate one weekend in September as Disaster Relief, 2021. This would be a 2nd Collection opportunity for parishioners to assist Catholic Charities USA and/or Catholic Relief Services in their ongoing efforts to provide food, water, shelter, and many other essential items to the victims of: Hurricane Ida; Earthquake/Tropical storm disaster in Haiti; Wildfires in California; and Suffering in Afghanistan. Disaster Relief, 2021 will be happening nationally within Catholic Communities. Our Disaster Relief, 2021 Weekend at Saint Cabrini will be September 25/26, 2021 – and a marked 2nd Collection Box inside the Church doors will be available at all of our Masses. See Page 4 for more details. Thanks for your continued prayers for everyone who is affected by tragedies and disasters.

HEALTH UPDATE

If you see on the news that our School had a health outbreak - or if you arrive for Mass and find the main gates at the street are closed, chances are that the Campus is on lockdown for sanitation - and that Weekend Masses have been cancelled. If this happens, we will notify you via REALM/Social Media Venues.
