SOLEMNITY OF CHRIST THE KING

Then Pilate entered the headquarters again, summoned Jesus, and asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" Jesus answered, "Do you ask this on your own, or did others tell you about me?" Pilate replied, "I am not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests have handed you over to me. What have you done?" Jesus answered, "My kingdom is not from this world. If my kingdom were from this world, my followers would be fighting to keep me from being handed over to the Jews. But as it is, my kingdom is not from here." Pilate asked him, "So you are a king?" Jesus answered, "You say that I am a king. For this I was born, and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice." John 18: 33-37

What a generous Parish we have! As a result of our food drive last month, our Parish donated approximately 700 pounds of food to the Food Pantry at the Osceola Council on Aging. They assist senior residents in our area - in so many ways! Our donation came just in time as the Holidays approach. This picture is from the last delivery we made last Tuesday. The Food Pantry staff was very grateful. Even though Saint Frances Xavier Cabrini Catholic Church is only two years old, we are a thriving and active Community. 'Thank You' to all of our wonderful parishioners who donated. We will do another food drive soon. We want to continue our outreach efforts into the new year. Please reach out to me if you would like to assist with other Parish community projects. Saint Cabrini Parish is a special blessing to me, and so many others. We have an amazing pastor in Fr. Charles, as well as a kind, talented, and caring Ministry Team. We invite you to join us and share your God given talents as well.

Wishing You All God's Blessings,

Laura Block

My Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

Grace and Peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. We end our liturgical year with praise and thanksgiving for our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. We know that Jesus' Kingdom is a spiritual one which exists in each one of us who seeks to know God. We are bound to each other, through, with and in Christ, and as a community of faith, our primary mission is to bear witness to the Truth for which Jesus died; that God loves all people and desires to live with us forever.

It seems fitting then to begin our new liturgical year, during the holy season of Advent, with a focus on the Holy Father's call for us to be a people of synodality. A people of synodality are on a journey and I hearken to the beautiful story of Emmaus where Jesus walks alongside two disciples who have just witnessed His death and have heard stories about His Resurrection. Yet, they did not recognize Him until He spoke with them (shared the Word of God) and broke bread with them (offering them the gift of Himself through the Eucharist). It was only then that they knew He was Jesus. In our journey, we are called to be Jesus to others and to recognize Jesus in others. This journey is one of prayer and sharing and listening so that we grow in our love of God and love of one another as God loves us.

As we begin the season of Advent, it is appropriate for us to ponder how we individually and as a community seek God and journey with God through each other. It is a time to reflect upon our participation (or lack of) in the celebration of Mass. Advent calls us to anticipate the coming of the babe, the Savior of the world. We desire to be ready for His coming. So, we prepare as best we are able to be ready to receive Him and share His goodness throughout the earth. Our Blessed Mother's fiat is a wondrous example of how we are to live faithfully as she proclaimed joyfully, "Yes", to offer herself as the Mother of God for the sake of our salvation.

I pray with you that our journeying together will open our heart to God.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend John Noonan
Bishop of Orlando

Notes:

'For A Synodal Church' (Synod, 2021-2023)

- * Pope Francis convenes a synod in Rome and calls us to actively engage in the opportunity of becoming more of a listening Church.
- * This synodal process invites all the faithful to participate through current and new opportunities to receive, with open ears, the messages that may not have been heard in the past.
 - * Listening can lead to healing and transformation.
- * Listening opportunities can be found in all aspects of Parish Life – such as encounters, meetings, and in gatherings that normally occur.
 - * More information/Synodal Prayer (Spotlighted on USCCB Home Page): www.usccb.org
- * Diocese of Orlando participation begins on November 28, 2021 (First Sunday of Advent) and concludes on June 5th, 2022 (Pentecost Sunday).

Diocese of Orlando Parishes Welcome Program to Help Parents of Addicts

Julia Hayden sat on the floor of her room sobbing and broken. Her son had just informed her he was using heroin. "In that moment, I realized I had been waiting for decades for him to hit bottom, so I could fix it all, make it right finally. Really, I had been living at bottom throughout his addiction," she said. She prayed and recalled reading an article about PAL (Parents of Addicted Loved ones) four years earlier - a peer-to-peer support group for family members with addicted loved ones. She visited the PAL website and drove 50 miles to the nearest meeting (Saint Thomas Aquinas Parish in Saint Cloud). "The PAL facilitator hugged me that night and told me that my journey of healing has begun," Hayden said.

PAL is a national organization present in 45 states. Family members and other 18 years of age and older and sober are welcome at the weekly meetings (in person or Zoom). Following a 12-week curriculum, participants are welcome to repeat the series as many times as they wish, and most do. "PAL goes with you and grows with you," she said. They don't offer advice and they don't judge. Instead, they encourage participants to seek trusted professional help. The free meetings are faith-based and begin in prayer. The program offers fact-based information, insight into understanding addiction, and offers coping tools and support. PAL helps parents understand the disease of addiction and the dis-ease that our loved one's experience. Currently, meetings are held once a week at Saint Thomas Aquinas as well as at Saint James Cathedral, Orlando. Hayden said PAL saved her and refers to the program as "God's red carpet to healing."

For more information regarding PAL or meetings, contact julia.hayden.palgroupvolunteer@gmail.com or call 518-951-9610.
