Holy Days - As Announced

"There will be signs in the sun, the moon, and the stars, and on the earth distress among nations confused by the roaring of the sea and the waves. People will faint from fear and foreboding of what is coming upon the world, for the powers of the heavens will be shaken. Then they will see 'the Son of Man coming in a cloud' with power and great glory. Now when these things begin to take place, stand up and raise your heads, because your redemption is drawing near." "Be on guard so that your hearts are not weighed down with dissipation and drunkenness and the worries of this life, and that day catch you unexpectedly, like a trap. For it will come upon all who live on the face of the whole earth. Be alert at all times, praying that you may have the strength to escape all these things that will take place, and to stand before the Son of Man."

Luke 21:25-28, 34-36

From July 1, 2020 through June 30, 2021

280,064 people received assistance from the ministries of Catholic Charities of Central Florida! This is nearly double the number of people who were served in the 12 months prior.

Through the COVID-19 pandemic, the staff and volunteers met the increased demand. The Annual Collection - at the parishes of the Diocese of Orlando and online - provides monetary support that goes directly to the people who are in the most need throughout our nine-county service area.

2nd Collection Box at all Masses.
Online giving available as well.

This Weekend!
ANNUAL COLLECTION WEEKEND

We can't do it with out you! Your prayers, donations, and volunteerism helped us serve 280,064 people over the last year. To continue your support, please visit cflcc.org.

Mr. John Rivas (parishioner) will be speaking at the end of all of our Masses this weekend to share with us the many blessings that Catholic Charities of Central Florida has bestowed on locals of all faiths - as he extends a personal invitation to participate in this year's Annual Collection to assist their Ministry for the year to come! Thanks for your Kindness & Generosity!

Ministry To The Sick

New Ministry at Saint Cabrini! Our Ministers have been trained and are ready to make a (masked) weekend visit (anytime after Masses) to bring Holy Communion to the Catholic sick and shut-ins in the Lake Nona Area. If you, or someone you know, would like a brief visit to receive Holy Communion, please send an email to: EMHC@SaintCabriniCatholic.org.

My Dear Sisters & Brothers in Christ,

What a wonderful past couple of weeks we had! Three weeks ago, we commemorated our 2nd Anniversary of establishing a Catholic Church in Lake Nona! Two weeks ago, we celebrated our Patroness Feast Day Weekend! And last weekend we were blest to have Bishop Noonan with us to bestow the Sacrament of Confirmation on our student parishioners as we ended a liturgical season with the Solemnity of Christ the King! That was a lot of excitement in such a short period of time! And it's not over, yet! A few days ago, we joined together with Church and family members to give 'Thanks' for the many blessings that we have in our lives (hope you had a nice one!) – and this weekend we begin the Season of Advent when our wreath makes an appearance again! It also marks the beginning of our Holy Father's Synod of Synodality – where we begin a period of listening like we've never done before (see page 5)! Plus, we have the opportunity this weekend for outreach as we listen to a speaker and see a short ministry video to assist in the ongoing good works of our very own Catholic Charities of Central Florida! Wow! How many exclamation points were in this paragraph!?

As we begin this Season of Advent, let us remember that we are in a period of preparation – preparation for remembering the coming of our Lord on Christmas Day, and for when He will come again in glory in gathering everything and everyone to Himself. Let this journey be a fruitfully spiritual one – undistracted by interruptions that may take us off track. Keep your eyes and hearts open to the wonders that lie ahead for those of us who believe. Keep focus on the Advent journey and reap the rewards that await.

Peace, Prayers & All Good Things, Fr. Charles

We have submitted an application for a Traffic Control Officer to assist us on Sunday's & Holiday's. Hopefully we will hear back from them soon.

Parking Reminder!

Parking in the back of the school (the "car loop") is primarily reserved for those who need extra time or assistance getting in and out of the Church. When parking in the car loop, park on both sides and please be mindful not to block the disabled ramps.

SAN PEDRO SPIRITUAL DEVELOPMENT CENTER PRESENTS

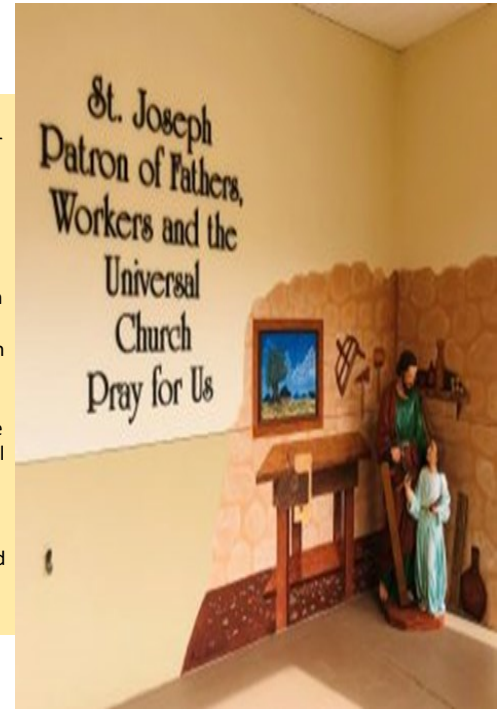

A CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION

DEC. 15, 2021 6PM-8PM

LIVE NATIVITY | PETTING ZOO | CAROLS
CRAFTS | FOOD & HOLIDAY TREATS
PHOTOS WITH THE THREE KINGS & MORE!

The Year of Saint Joseph is almost over. Proclaimed by Pope Francis on December 8, 2020, the year coincides with the 150th anniversary of Saint Joseph's appointment as the Patron of the Universal Church by Pope Pius IX. It concludes on December 8, 2021. In the recent Mass for Life, Bishop John Noonan quoted Pope Francis who said of Saint Joseph, "Each of us can discover in Joseph – the man who goes unnoticed, a daily discreet and hidden presence – an intercessor, a support and a guide in time of trouble." Bishop added, "He is a model for all of us as he lived discipleship in the Lord. He reminds us our daily living is to bear fruit in salvation history by our docility to God. His faith in God is offered to assure us of Emmanuel, God with us." Thank You Saint Joseph!

'For A Synodal Church' (Synod, 2021-2023)

- * Pope Francis convenes a synod in Rome and calls us to actively engage in the opportunity of becoming more of a listening Church.
- * This synodal process invites all the faithful to participate through current and new opportunities to receive, with open ears, the messages that may not have been heard in the past.
 - * Listening can lead to healing and transformation.
- * Listening opportunities can be found in all aspects of Parish Life – such as encounters, meetings, and in gatherings that normally occur.
- * More information/Synodal Prayer (Spotlighted on USCCB Home Page): www.usccb.org
- * Diocese of Orlando participation begins on November 28, 2021 (First Sunday of Advent) and concludes on June 5th, 2022 (Pentecost Sunday).

'For A Synodal Church' Prayer

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name. With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts; Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it.

We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder. Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions.

Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right. All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.

ORLANDO | Flipping the pyramid of perceived power in the Church, Pope Francis has put himself at the bottom and the Catholic faithful at the top. Simply put, in the Synod of Synodality, the Pope wants everyone to listen to the Holy Spirit and each other to build a better relationship with our Lord. Nearly 200 people soaked in that message at St. James Cathedral on November 19. Father Dominic Buckley and Jesuit seminarian, Orlando Portalatín, explained how the process will work in the Diocese of Orlando and then fielded questions. Father Buckley affirmed the goal of the synod – to encounter, listen, and discern with the desire for the Holy Spirit to provide healing for the great divisions within and outside the Church. "Pope Francis is inviting us to return to our roots and to remind ourselves of what it means to be Christians, what it means to follow Christ," he said. Portalatín, who currently teaches at Ignatius Loyola Catholic School in Puerto Rico, noted, "The Pope is asking the Church to reflect on what the Spirit of God is telling us in this time and how that Spirit calls us to walk with one another as Church. He is a shepherd and wants to be close to his people." Explaining 'synod' in Greek means "to walk together or to travel in the company of others," he emphasized how Catholics are to approach this opportunity to grow in faith.

Bishop John Noonan, who also attended the presentation, offered some thoughts in a podcast (God Beside Me Episode: Synod of Synodality) earlier in the week. "It is not a program," he said. "It is an experience like the road to Emmaus. The road to Emmaus is simply an encounter with Jesus, the accompaniment of Jesus in your life and a discernment. Who is invited to participate? "Everybody," said the bishop. "It's about listening to each other and learning about what are the needs, not just of ourselves, but of the people... Those who are of our faith and those who are not of our faith." Quoting Matthew 25, he included the imprisoned, the naked, the poor. "Where are we in relationship with them? It is more about our relationship with God and with our brothers and sisters. We are called to know, love and serve the Lord. Then we are called to love our neighbor as ourselves, but I don't know if we know who our neighbors are, or if we even listen to them."

Emphasizing this is a "spiritual event," Father Buckley concluded, "This is about evangelization. This is about prophecy. This is about raising up a generation of Catholics who love like Jesus and speak like Him to our day and age. Christ will lead us."

For the Diocese of Orlando, the Synod will begin the first Sunday of Advent, Nov. 28. Orlando.thefloridacatholic.org
