SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT

In the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, when Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea, Herod tetrarch of Galilee, his brother Philip tetrarch of Iturea and Traconitis, and Lysanias tetrarch of Abilene, during the high-priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came to John son of Zechariah in the wilderness. He went into all the country around the Jordan, preaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins, as it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet: "A voice of one calling in the wilderness, 'Prepare the way for the Lord, make straight paths for him. Every valley shall be filled in, every mountain and hill made low. The crooked roads shall become straight, the rough ways smooth. And all people will see God's salvation.'" Luke 3: 1-6 of the Journey of the People of the Diocese of Orlando

Proclamation

On this First Sunday of the Season of Advent, November 28, 2021, the people with their bishop, clergy and religious join with our Holy Father, Pope Francis, and the people of the earth to begin a journey of Synodality. We recall the striking journey of Emmaus where two disciples met Jesus after His Resurrection and did not recognize Him until He was at table with them. "And it happened that, while he was with them at table, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them. With that their eyes were opened and they recognized him, but he vanished from their sight" (Luke 24:30,31).

The entire People of God share a common dignity and vocation through Baptism. All of us are called in virtue of our Baptism to be active participants in the life of the Church. In parishes, small Christian communities, lay movements, religious communities, and other forms of communion, women and men, young people and the elderly, we are all invited to listen to one another in order to hear the promptings of the Holy Spirit, who comes to guide our human efforts, breathing life and vitality into the Church and leading us into deeper communion for our mission in the world. As the Church embarks on this synodal journey, we must strive to ground ourselves in experiences of authentic listening and discernment on the path of becoming the Church that God calls us to be (Vademecum 1.2).

Acknowledging our own weaknesses, and having experienced a world pandemic, we pray fervently to embark on this journey of Synodality with all God's People and affirm our desire to know God and to be nourished by Him through the Eucharist. In our spiritual reality, food plays a primary role in the story of salvation, from the forbidden fruit in the garden which brings forth sin and death to the food of Christ's body on the tree of the Cross which brings forth everlasting life. Pope Benedict XVI wrote, "The remembrance of His perfect gift consists not in the mere repetition of the Last Supper, but in the Eucharist itself, that is, in the radical newness of Christian worship. In this way, Jesus left us the task of entering into His "hour." "The Eucharist draws us into Jesus' act of self-oblation. More than just statically receiving the incarnate Logos, we enter into the very dynamic of His self-giving."

From our entry in His self-giving, we call upon the Holy Spirit to sanctify our daily living and make us holy that we are able to be Christ as we receive Him. For by its very nature, the Eucharist demands to be shared with all. Prompted by the Holy Spirit, we call out to each other with Love of God and through, with and in God, listen with eyes of mercy and ears of hope in the Lord that His Word might be known throughout the earth. We offer our heart to each other as we are leaven in the world in which we live and work. We pray that those whom we encounter, individually and collectively, will come to know our joy that they are with us.

The Church exists to evangelize. We can never be centered on ourselves. Our mission is to witness to the Love of God in the midst of the whole human family. During the seasons of Advent 2021 through Pentecost 2022, we offer our whole self - body, mind, soul and strength - to serve the dialogue of God with humanity and to journey together as servants to the coming of the kingdom of heaven.

We turn to our Patronness, Mary, the Mother of God, who by her fiat shares in the redemption brought forth by her Son given to us as the Bread of Life through the Eucharist. We beseech her to guide us on this journey that we may become the true face of her Son for all the people.

Now, therefore, I, Bishop John Noonan, the fifth Bishop of the Diocese of Orlando, do hereby proclaim the Advent season 2021 through Pentecost 2022 as a time of purposeful journey of Synodality. I call upon the holy people of God of the Diocese of Orlando to observe this time with renewed fervor that this journey of faith will arise from a gaze of Love. In our prayer, we invoke the Holy Spirit and humbly listen to Him, journeying together as He, the source of communion and mission, desires - with docility and courage.

Come, Holy Spirit!

Come, Spirit of love, open our hearts to hear Your voice!

Come, Holy Spirit of holiness, renew the holy and faithful People of God!

Come, Creator Spirit, renew the face of the earth!

Amen.

Most Reverend John Noonan
Bishop of Orlando

'For A Synodal Church' Prayer

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name. With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts; Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it. We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder. Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions. Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right. All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.

28 1st Sunday of Advent

FOLLOW

O Lord, point out the right road for me to walk. Ps. 25:4

29

Advent means "to come," and we invite Jesus to come into our hearts!

30

Read Luke 3:4-5 December 1

Advent is a time to follow Jesus, and John the Baptist told us how. He said, "Prepare a road for the Lord to travel on. Straighten the curves, smooth out the ruts." He asks us to repent, to tell God we're sorry when we're selfish or we hurt someone's feelings.

How will you follow John's words?

Ask Mom and Dad to help you cut a star out of cardboard with open areas like the one pictured. Cut pieces of colored tissue paper to glue on the back of the star, and hang it in the window to let the light shine through.

Read John 8:12

5 2nd Sunday of Advent

PRAY

What amazing things the Lord has done. Ps. 126:2

Father in heaven, from above, look down upon our home in love. Keep us in health and strength this day; give us our daily bread we pray. And for thy gifts, so full and free we would return our thanks to thee.

John also said to share with the poor and be honest in everything we do.

Circles remind us that God's love has no beginning and no end!

10

Did you get new boots and mittens this winter?

Share your outgrown ones with someone in need!

11

John the Baptist says:

P + ☀ = _____

S + 👧 = _____

PR + (key - K) + 🍷 = _____

12 3rd Sunday of Advent

SING

The Lord is my strength and my song. Isaiah 12:2

13

The angels sang, "Glory to God in highest heaven and peace on earth." Luke 2:14

Use paper, markers, scissors and glue to make angel finger puppets today.

14

Is your manger scene up yet?

Move Baby Jesus closer each day to the manger.

16

We know that God sent Jesus to be our Savior. But why do we need a savior? Read Romans 5:6-11

17

Here's a yummy gift to make: Mix 2 cups of sugar, 1 cup of water, 1 cup of light corn syrup and 3 teaspoons of butter; bring to a boil and cook until it's thick. Pour it over popped popcorn in a large bowl and mix it gently with a wooden spoon. Put baggies on your hands and form balls. Put each popcorn ball in a baggie and tie it with a bow.

18

19 4th Sunday of Advent

LOVE

The Lord God has arrived to live among you. Zeph. 3:17

20

O God, look down on us in joy and love; only then shall we be saved. Psalm 80:3

21

Every snowflake has 6 points, and every one is different. That's how God made us, too! Lots in common, but everyone unique!

Read Ps. 139:13-16

22

Do you have friends who don't know Jesus? Tell them! And invite them to church on Christmas.

Read Acts 5:20

23

Be a good neighbor today. Ask elderly neighbors if you can walk their dog.

Read 1 Timothy 6:18

24

Bring your hearts and offer them to Christ our King in Bethlehem.

25 CHRISTMAS DAY!
