THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Many have undertaken to draw up an account of the things that have been fulfilled among us, just as they were handed down to us by those who from the first were eyewitnesses and servants of the word. With this in mind, since I myself have carefully investigated everything from the beginning, I too decided to write an orderly account for you, most excellent Theophilus, so that you may know the certainty of the things you have been taught.

Jesus returned to Galilee in the power of the Spirit, and news about him spread through the whole countryside. He was teaching in their synagogues, and everyone praised him. He went to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, and on the Sabbath day he went into the synagogue, as was his custom. He stood up to read, and the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was handed to him. Unrolling it, he found the place where it is written:

'The Spirit of the Lord is on me, because he has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind, to set the oppressed free, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor.' Then he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant and sat down. The eyes of everyone in the synagogue were fastened on him. He began by saying to them, 'Today this scripture is fulfilled in your hearing.'

Luke 1: 1-4, 4: 14-21

My Dear Sisters in Christ,

Grace and Peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you on this 'Council of Catholic Women Sunday' (January 23, 2022). When I hear the words of Psalm 19 exclaimed, "Your word, Lord, are Spirit and life," I can only think that they are befitting of you, the partakers of His Word through the Council of Catholic Women. You bring God's Word to life by your gift of ministry to His holy people. Your ministry through, with and in God is never delayed by the pandemic, natural disaster, or any such protestation. Rather, the words of each one of you and the thoughts of your heart find favor in the Lord as you courageously bring forth His goodness for all the people.

Your humility in service is a gift to our diocese as you gently lead God's people to know His love. I am forever grateful for your presence during Catholic Days at the Capitol; for your devotion to life from conception through natural death; for your prayerful living all your days.

May we speak God's words that we know Him as Spirit and life.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Most Reverend John Noonan
Bishop of Orlando
