SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“But to you who are listening I say: Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you. If someone slaps you on one cheek, turn to them the other also. If someone takes your coat, do not withhold your shirt from them. Give to everyone who asks you, and if anyone takes what belongs to you, do not demand it back. Do to others as you would have them do to you. If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners love those who love them. And if you do good to those who are good to you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners do that. And if you lend to those from whom you expect repayment, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, expecting to be repaid in full. But love your enemies, do good to them, and lend to them without expecting to get anything back. Then your reward will be great, and you will be children of the Most High, because he is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked. Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful. Do not judge, and you will not be judged. Do not condemn, and you will not be condemned.

Forgive, and you will be forgiven. Give, and it will be given to you.

A good measure, pressed down, shaken together and running over, will be poured into your lap. For with the measure you use, it will be measured to you.” Luke 6: 27-38

My Dear Brothers & Sisters in Christ,

From the Pastor's Desk

Hope this finds you and your families well – with all that life has to offer. To those who may be experiencing challenges, know that you are being lifted up to The Lord by me and others who love you. And just when we think that enough is coming our way, we receive additional encouragement and direction from Jesus on what exactly we are supposed to be doing and how we are supposed to be doing it.

This weekend's Gospel (Luke 6: 27-38) offers additional challenges in a world that continues to change. We are being instructed to love our enemies, turn the other cheek, freely give, do unto others, do not judge, forgive, etc. Wow! That's a lot for us to add to an already full plate.

SO, with all that we are asked to accomplish, how do we remain level-headed in keeping perspective and not being driven over the edge? WELL, we probably need to remove some (if not more) of the items on the plate by addressing them in the way that Jesus is asking us to – and feel a sense of freedom and accomplishment to continue forward. Easy? No! Impossible? No! Helpful? Yes! Remember - Everything is possible with God!

Peace, Prayers & All Good Things,

Fr. Charles

Our Catholic Appeal - Update

OCA Pledges are still being calculated by The Catholic Foundation of Central Florida. Here are some statistics to share: Families registered at Saint Cabrini: 702. So far, 90 Families participating in OCA: 12.9% (We are aiming for 100% participation). Saint Cabrini OCA Goal: $53,901.00. Pledges fulfilled: $15,607.50. We are officially on the way! I give Thanks to God for our wonderful people & Parish, as we actively continue the journey in reaching our goal. When filling out & returning your OCA envelope this weekend (place in Collection Box), please consider making a sacrificial, 11 month pledge to help your Parish reach its goal. You can also go to : <https://www.cfof.org/oca/give/> for online & gift giving options - and remember to choose Saint Cabrini as your Parish. Thanks to those who can give, and Thanks to those who keep the success of their Parish in their prayers.
