EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He also told them this parable: "Can the blind lead the blind? Will they not both fall into a pit? The student is not above the teacher, but everyone who is fully trained will be like their teacher. Why do you look at the speck of sawdust in your brother's eye and pay no attention to the plank in your own eye? How can you say to your brother, 'Brother, let me take the speck out of your eye,' when you yourself fail to see the plank in your own eye? You hypocrite, first take the plank out of your eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck from your brother's eye. No good tree bears bad fruit, nor does a bad tree bear good fruit. Each tree is recognized by its own fruit. People do not pick figs from thorn bushes, or grapes from briars. A good man brings good things out of the good stored up in his heart, and an evil man brings evil things out of the evil stored up in his heart. For the mouth speaks what the heart is full of." Luke 6: 39-45

My Dear Sisters & Brothers in Christ,

Welcome to our last weekend in Ordinary Time (for a while). I don't know how we got here so fast, but this Wednesday (March 2nd) is Ash Wednesday and will begin our Lenten Journey for the next six or so weeks ahead. As is tradition, take a good look at your life and maybe try to work on a few improvements (or modifications) when the journey begins and ashes are sprinkled on your heads.

Since the Season of Lent is penitential in nature, put yourself back in charge of your life and work on increasing your health and spirituality by: spending more time in personal prayer; spending less time surfing the internet or on social media; participating in daily Mass on-line, TV, or in person; giving up a favorite beverage, food or snack; praying the rosary daily or weekly; putting aside gaming devices; and the list goes on and on - all designed to have you in the driver's seat.

Let us all work on making this Lent a time of personal growth in awareness, sacrifice, forgiveness and self-giving.

Peace, Prayers, & All Good Things,

Fr. Charles

Lenten Guidelines

- On Ash Wednesday, Good Friday, and all Fridays of Lent: Everyone of age 14 and up abstain from eating meat.
- On Ash Wednesday and Good Friday: Everyone of age 18 to 59 must fast, unless exempt due to a medical reason. When fasting, a person is permitted to eat one full meal that day, and have two smaller meals that together are not equal to a full meal.
