CORPUS CHRISTI

The crowds learned about it and followed him. He welcomed them and spoke to them about the kingdom of God, and healed those who needed healing. Late in the afternoon the Twelve came to him and said, "Send the crowd away so they can go to the surrounding villages and countryside and find food and lodging, because we are in a remote place here." He replied, "You give them something to eat." They answered, "We have only five loaves of bread and two fish - unless we go and buy food for all this crowd." There were about five thousand men. But he said to his disciples, "Have them sit down in groups of about fifty each." The disciples did so, and everyone sat down. Taking the five loaves and the two fish and looking up to heaven, he gave thanks and broke them. Then he gave them to the disciples to distribute to the people. They all ate and were satisfied, and the disciples picked up twelve basketfuls of broken pieces that were left over. Luke 9: 11-17

To All Our Dads at Saint Cabrini

This weekend we extend a 'Happy Father's Day!' to all Dads – biological; adoptive; foster; grand; great grand – and indeed – to all men who possess and share those fatherly qualities. May this be a special time for all of you where we express our love and gratitude for everything that you do for us, not just this weekend, but every single day of our lives.

My Dear Brothers & Sisters in Christ,

On this Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi) Weekend, the Church draws attention to the connection between Christ's sacrifice and the Eucharistic sacrifice. While every celebration of the Eucharist is a memorial of Christ's sacrifice, every time we celebrate the Eucharist, we remember the love of God for us manifested in the Passion, death, and Resurrection of Jesus the Christ – and the beauty of that Last Supper which ties it all together. There can be no Eucharist if there is no sacrifice.

Even from the moment of the Last Supper, Jesus intended the Eucharist to be related to self-giving. He illustrated this with the washing of the feet of the Apostles. We cannot therefore separate the Eucharist from self-offering. There can be no Eucharist if there is no victim.

The purpose of the celebration today, the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ, is to remind us all of the importance and joy at receiving the Eucharist. We are reminded of Who it is we are receiving and what state of mind (and heart) that we are in when we receive it. The original celebration of the Body of Christ was begun in the thirteenth century promoted by one of our spiritual ancestors named Saint Juliana of Liege, a visionary and an Augustinian nun. Soon after this, Pope Urban IV asked the great theologian, Saint Thomas Aquinas, to prepare a Mass to celebrate this new feast, which he did.

Every time we receive Holy Communion, we are recommitting ourselves to being active members of the community that spreads the Kingdom of God through sacrificial love. The Eucharist is the Body of Christ, the real presence of the Lord. This real presence of the Lord is the reason why we always try to spend some time in silent prayer after we receive. The Eucharist, a word that means thanksgiving, is the way that we thank God for the life we have received, and the saved community of which we are a part of. We thank God in the Eucharist for giving us His power to make His presence real in the world.

With life's many difficulties, the Eucharist gives us the sustenance to better face these daily problems. Happy Corpus Christi!

Peace, Prayers & All Good Things, Fr. Charles

If you would like to be considered to join our wonderful Catechetical Team, please email Margarita at: Office@SaintCabriniCatholic.org. You will need to successfully complete a fingerprinting background check and have a safe environment training.

For your convenience, an officer is on campus every Sunday.

This Saturday (5 PM Mass) we will hear from Maureen Cook, who will be inviting us to participate in our upcoming R.C.I.A. & R.C.I.C. Programs to receive Sacraments in the Church. This Sunday (Both Masses) we will hear from Howie King as he shares our upcoming First Holy Communion and Confirmation Classes this Fall. Next Saturday (6/25) he will be speaking at the 5 PM Mass. Feel free to see them afterwards with any questions.
