TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Then Jesus told his disciples a parable to show them that they should always pray and not give up. He said: "In a certain town there was a judge who neither feared God nor cared what people thought. And there was a widow in that town who kept coming to him with the plea, 'Grant me justice against my adversary.' "For some time, he refused. But finally, he said to himself, 'Even though I don't fear God or care what people think, yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will see that she gets justice, so that she won't eventually come and attack me!'" And the Lord said, "Listen to what the unjust judge says. And will not God bring about justice for his chosen ones, who cry out to him day and night? Will he keep putting them off? I tell you, he will see that they get justice, and quickly. However, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on the earth?" Luke 18: 1-8

In keeping with its mission, the Florida Conference of Catholic Bishops (FCCB) seeks to educate Catholics and provide resources to assist the faithful with their responsibility to participate in political life. To help inform voters, FCCB has developed a comparison between the positions of the two major-party candidates for Florida governor on a range of issues. The information has been compiled directly from policies, public statements, official or campaign websites, and other sources, as of September 13, 2022, for informational purposes only and does not serve as an endorsement of either candidate. View the Florida Gubernatorial Candidate Comparison \(English\) | \(Spanish\). This document is but one tool to help Catholics prepare for the election and is not a substitute for individual research and study. The issues that appear do not represent a complete list of issues that may be of importance to Catholics. The responsibility to make political choices rests with each individual in light of a properly formed conscience in accordance with human reason and the truths of our faith. The FCCB does not support or oppose candidates. Before voting, Catholics are called to consider a wide range of issues, weighing each according to its moral significance. Gaining familiarity with the candidates' positions on issues involving human life and dignity is essential to responsible, faithful citizenship. It is beneficial to research the ballot ahead of time and gather the facts for every proposal and race. The FCCB Voter Guide provides information about Catholic teaching, offers considerations on key topics, and poses questions regarding current issues to assist voters in evaluating candidate positions or political party platforms.
