SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT

In those days John the Baptist came, preaching in the wilderness of Judea and saying, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven has come near." This is he who was spoken of through the prophet Isaiah: "A voice of one calling in the wilderness, 'Prepare the way for the Lord, make straight paths for him.'" John's clothes were made of camel's hair, and he had a leather belt around his waist. His food was locusts and wild honey. People went out to him from Jerusalem and all Judea and the whole region of the Jordan. Confessing their sins, they were baptized by him in the Jordan River. But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming to where he was baptizing, he said to them: "You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the coming wrath? Produce fruit in keeping with repentance. And do not think you can say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father.' I tell you that out of these stones God can raise up children for Abraham. The ax is already at the root of the trees, and every tree that does not produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire. "I baptize you with water for repentance. But after me comes one who is more powerful than I, whose sandals I am not worthy to carry. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. His winnowing fork is in his hand, and he will clear his threshing floor, gathering his wheat into the barn and burning up the chaff with unquenchable fire." Matthew 3: 1-12

HORRIBLE HENRY

Our resident parishioner authors are back – with their second children's book entitled "Horrible Henry." By the end of it, this book will make you think if Henry is really horrible after all.

According to the Nursey Rhyme, little boys are made of 'Snips and snails and puppy dog tails.' And that's mostly true, isn't it? Boys will be boys. Won't they? Using the rhythm of popular Nursery Rhymes to describe his various exploits, this book uncovers the adventures of young and rambunctious Henry, who seems to be in trouble wherever he turns. He's frustrating, but is he horrible? You decide.

Next weekend, Hank and Elaine Turowski will be hosting a book signing of this, their latest children's book collaboration – "Horrible Henry". Elaine did all of the artwork paintings, and Hank had adapted various Nursery Rhymes to tell the story of Henry's misadventures. If you enjoyed "Ella and her Umbrella," you will also like "Horrible Henry."

The next Baptismal Preparation Class for Parents & (local) Godparents - or for parishioner Godparents who need to take the Class for Baptisms held elsewhere - will be on Saturday, January 21st, 2023 - at 3:45 PM at the outside picnic benches under the overhang. Please email Fr. Charles to register or if you have questions: FrCharles@SaintCabriniCatholic.org. Families having Baptisms at Saint Cabrini Parish need to be registered at the Parish. You can register online at our Church Website: www.SaintCabriniCatholic.org or by filling out the two-sided form on the Welcome Cart and placing it in the Offertory Basket. Thanks!
