MARCH 12, 2023

THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT

Jesus came to a town in Samaria called Sychar, near the plot of ground Jacob had given to his son Joseph. Jacob's well was there, and Jesus, tired as he was from the journey, sat down by the well. It was about noon. When a Samaritan woman came to draw water, Jesus said to her, "Will you give me a drink?" (His disciples had gone into the town to buy food.) The Samaritan woman said to him, "You are a Jew and I am a Samaritan woman. How can you ask me for a drink?" (For Jews do not associate with Samaritans.) Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God and who it is that asks you for a drink, you would have asked him and he would have given you living water." "Sir," the woman said, "you have nothing to draw with and the well is deep. Where can you get this living water? Are you greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well and drank from it himself, as did also his sons and his livestock?" Jesus answered, "Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again, but whoever drinks the water I give them will never thirst. Indeed, the water I give them will become in them a spring of water welling up to eternal life." The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water so that I won't get thirsty and have to keep coming here to draw water." He told her, "Go, call your husband and come back." "I have no husband," she replied. Jesus said to her, "You are right when you say you have no husband. The fact is, you have had five husbands, and the man you now have is not your husband. What you have just said is quite true." "Sir," the woman said, "I can see that you are a prophet. Our ancestors worshiped on this mountain, but you Jews claim that the place where we must worship is in Jerusalem." "Woman," Jesus replied, "believe me, a time is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. You Samaritans worship what you do not know; we worship what we do know, for salvation is from the Jews. Yet a time is coming and has now come when the true worshipers will worship the Father in the Spirit and in truth, for they are the kind of worshipers the Father seeks. God is spirit, and his worshipers must worship in the Spirit and in truth." The woman said, "I know that Messiah" (called Christ) "is coming. When he comes, he will explain everything to us." Then Jesus declared, "I, the one speaking to you - I am he." Just then his disciples returned and were surprised to find him talking with a woman. But no one asked, "What do you want?" or "Why are you talking with her?" Then, leaving her water jar, the woman went back to the town and said to the people, "Come, see a man who told me everything I ever did. Could this be the Messiah?" They came out of the town and made their way toward him. Meanwhile his disciples urged him, "Rabbi, eat something." But he said to them, "I have food to eat that you know nothing about." Then his disciples said to each other, "Could someone have brought him food?" "My food," said Jesus, "is to do the will of him who sent me and to finish his work. Don't you have a saying, 'It's still four months until harvest'? I tell you, open your eyes and look at the fields! They are ripe for harvest. Even now the one who reaps draws a wage and harvests a crop for eternal life, so that the sower and the reaper may be glad together. Thus, the saying 'One sows and another reaps' is true. I sent you to reap what you have not worked for. Others have done the hard work, and you have reaped the benefits of their labor." Many of the Samaritans from that town believed in him because of the woman's testimony, "He told me everything I ever did." So, when the Samaritans came to him, they urged him to stay with them, and he stayed two days. And because of his words many more became believers. They said to the woman, "We no longer believe just because of what you said; now we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this man really is the Savior of the world."

Scriptural Stations of the Cross

The following Stations of the Cross are based on those celebrated by Saint Pope John Paul II on Good Friday, 1991. They are presented here as an alternative to the traditional Stations and as a way of reflecting more deeply on the Scriptural accounts of Christ's Passion.

Opening Prayer: God of power and mercy, in love you sent your Son that we might be cleansed of sin and live with you forever. Bless me as I reflect on his suffering and death that I may learn from his example - the way I should go. Through that same Christ, our Lord. Amen. I adore you, O Christ, and I bless you. Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

First Station: Jesus in the Garden of Gethsemane: Then Jesus came with them to a place called Gethsemane, and he said to his disciples, "Sit here while I go over there and pray." He took along Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to feel sorrow and distress. Then he said to them, "My soul is sorrowful even to death. Remain here and keep watch with me." He advanced a little and fell prostrate in prayer, saying, "My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from me; yet, not as I will, but as you will." When he returned to his disciples he found them asleep. He said to Peter, "So you could not keep watch with me for one hour? Watch and pray that you may not undergo the test. The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak." (Matthew 26:36-41)

Lord, grant me your strength and wisdom, that I may seek to follow your will in all things. Lord Jesus, help me walk in your steps. I adore you, O Christ, and I bless you. Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

Second Station: Jesus, Betrayed by Judas, is Arrested: Then, while [Jesus] was still speaking, Judas, one of the Twelve, arrived, accompanied by a crowd with swords and clubs, who had come from the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders. His betrayer had arranged a signal with them, saying, "the man I shall kiss is the one; arrest him and lead him away securely." He came and immediately went over to him and said, "Rabbi." And he kissed him. At this they laid hands on him and arrested him. (Mark 14: 43-46)

Lord, grant me the courage of our convictions that my life may faithfully reflect the good news you bring. Lord Jesus, help me walk in your steps. I adore you, O Christ, and I bless you. Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

Third Station: Jesus is Condemned by the Sanhedrin: When day came the council of elders of the people met, both chief priests and scribes, and they brought him before their Sanhedrin. They said, "If you are the Messiah, tell us," but he replied to them, "If I tell you, you will not believe, and if I question, you will not respond. But from this time on the Son of Man will be seated at the right hand of the power of God." They all asked, "Are you then the Son of God?" He replied to them, "You say that I am." Then they said, "What further need have we for testimony? We have heard it from his own mouth." (Luke 22: 66-71)

Lord, grant me your sense of righteousness that I may never cease to work to bring about the justice of the kingdom that you promised. Lord Jesus, help me walk in your steps. I adore you, O Christ, and I bless you. Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

Fourth Station: Jesus is Denied by Peter: Now Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard. One of the maids came over to him and said, "You too were with Jesus the Galilean." But he denied it in front of everyone, saying, "I do not know what you are talking about!" As he went out to the gate, another girl saw him and said to those who were there, "This man was with Jesus the Nazorean." Again, he denied it with an oath, "I do not know the man!" A little later the bystanders came over and said to Peter, "Surely you too are one of them; even your speech gives you away." At that he began to curse and to swear, "I do not know the man." And immediately a cock crowed. Then Peter remembered the word that Jesus had spoken: "Before the cock crows you will deny me three times." He went out and began to weep bitterly. (Matthew 26: 69-75)

Lord, grant me the gift of honesty that I may not fear to speak the truth even when difficult. Lord Jesus, help me walk in your steps. I adore you, O Christ, and I bless you. Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

Fifth Station: Jesus is Judged by Pilate: The chief priests with the elders and the scribes, that is, the whole Sanhedrin, held a council. They bound Jesus, led him away, and handed him over to Pilate. Pilate questioned him, "Are you the king of the Jews?" He said to him in reply, "You say so." The chief priests accused him of many things. Again, Pilate questioned him, "Have you no answer? See how many things they accuse you of." Jesus gave him no further answer, so that Pilate was amazed.... Pilate, wishing to satisfy the crowd, released Barabbas... [and] handed [Jesus] over to be crucified. (Mark 15: 1-5, 15)

Lord, grant me discernment that I may see as you see, not as the world sees. Lord Jesus, help me walk in your steps. I adore you, O Christ, and I bless you. Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

Sixth Station: Jesus is Scourged and Crowned with Thorns: Then Pilate took Jesus and had him scourged. And the soldiers wove a crown out of thorns and placed it on his head, and clothed him in a purple cloak, and they came to him and said, "Hail, King of the Jews!" And they struck him repeatedly. (John 19: 1-3)

Lord, grant me patience in times of suffering that I may offer my life as a sacrifice of praise. I adore you, O Christ, and I bless you. Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

Seventh Station: Jesus Bears the Cross: When the chief priests and the guards saw [Jesus] they cried out, "Crucify him, crucify him!" Pilate said to them, "Take him yourselves and crucify him. I find no guilt in him." ... They cried out, "Take him away, take him away! Crucify him!" Pilate said to them, "Shall I crucify your king?" The chief priests answered, "We have no king but Caesar." Then he handed him over to them to be crucified. So, they took Jesus, and carrying the cross himself he went out to what is called the Place of the Skull, in Hebrew, Golgotha. (John 19: 6, 15-17)

Lord, grant me strength of purpose that I may faithfully bear my cross each day. Lord Jesus, help me walk in your steps. I adore you, O Christ, and I bless you. Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

Eighth Station: Jesus is Helped by Simon of Cyrene to Carry the Cross: They pressed into service a passer-by, Simon, of Cyrene, who was coming in from the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to carry his cross. (Mark 15: 21)

Lord, grant me a willing spirit that I may be your instrument on earth. Lord Jesus, help me walk in your steps. I adore you, O Christ, and I bless you. Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

Ninth Station: Jesus Meets the Women of Jerusalem: A large crowd of people followed Jesus, including many women who mourned and lamented him. Jesus turned to them and said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me; weep instead for yourselves and for your children, for indeed, the days are coming when people will say, 'Blessed are the barren, the wombs that never bore and the breasts that never nursed.' At that time, people will say to the mountains, 'Fall upon us!' and to the hills, 'Cover us!' for if these things are done when the wood is green what will happen when it is dry?" (Luke 23: 27-31)

Lord, grant me a gentle spirit that I may comfort those who mourn. Lord Jesus, help me walk in your steps. I adore you, O Christ, and I bless you. Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

Tenth Station: Jesus is Crucified: When they came to the place called the Skull, they crucified him and the criminals there, one on his right, the other on his left. [Then Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, they know not what they do."] (Luke 23: 33-34)

Lord, grant me a merciful heart that I may bring your reconciliation and forgiveness to all. Lord Jesus, help me walk in your steps. I adore you, O Christ, and I bless you. Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

Eleventh Station: Jesus Promises His Kingdom to the Good Thief: Now one of the criminals hanging there reviled Jesus, saying, "Are you not the Messiah? Save yourself and us." The other, however, rebuking him, said in reply, "Have you no fear of God, for you are subject to the same condemnation? And indeed, we have been condemned justly, for the sentence we received corresponds to our crimes, but this man has done nothing criminal." Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." He replied to him, "Amen, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise." (Luke 23: 39-43)

Lord, grant me perseverance that I may never stop seeking you. Lord Jesus, help me walk in your steps. I adore you, O Christ, and I bless you. Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

Twelfth Station: Jesus Speaks to His Mother and the Disciple: Standing by the cross of Jesus were his mother and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary of Magdala. When Jesus saw his mother and the disciple there whom he loved, he said to his mother, "Woman, behold, your son." Then he said to the disciple, "Behold, your mother." And from that hour the disciple took her into his home. (John 19: 25-27)

Lord, grant me constancy that I may be willing to stand by those in need. Lord Jesus, help me walk in your steps. I adore you, O Christ, and I bless you. Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

Thirteenth Station: Jesus Dies on the Cross: It was now about noon and darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon because of an eclipse of the sun. Then the veil of the temple was torn down the middle. Jesus cried out in a loud voice, "Father, into your hands I commend my spirit"; and when he had said this he breathed his last. (Luke 23: 44-46)

Lord, grant me trust in you that when my time on earth is ended, my spirit may come to you without delay. Lord Jesus, help me walk in your steps. I adore you, O Christ, and I bless you. Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

Fourteenth Station: Jesus is Placed in the Tomb: When it was evening, there came a rich man from Arimathea named Joseph, who was himself a disciple of Jesus. He went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus; then Pilate ordered it to be handed over. Taking the body, Joseph wrapped it [in] clean linen and laid it in his new tomb that he had hewn in the rock. Then he rolled a huge stone across the entrance to the tomb and departed. (Matthew 27: 57-60)

Lord, grant me your compassion that I may always provide for those in need. Lord Jesus, help me walk in your steps. I adore you, O Christ, and I bless you. Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

Closing Prayer: Lord Jesus Christ, your passion and death is the sacrifice that unites earth and heaven and reconciles all people to you. May I who have faithfully reflected on these mysteries follow in your steps and so come to share your glory in heaven where you live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit one God, for ever and ever. Amen.
