JULY 02, 2023

THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus said: "Anyone who loves their father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; anyone who loves their son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. Whoever does not take up their cross and follow me is not worthy of me. Whoever finds their life will lose it, and whoever loses their life for my sake will find it. Anyone who welcomes you welcomes me, and anyone who welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me. Whoever welcomes a prophet as a prophet will receive a prophet's reward, and whoever welcomes a righteous person as a righteous person will receive a righteous person's reward. And if anyone gives even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones who is my disciple, truly I tell you, that person will certainly not lose their reward." Matthew 10: 37-42

Prayer for Protection During Hurricane Season

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children.
 The Sea of Galilee obeyed Your order and returned to its former quietude.
 You are still the Master of land and sea.

We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control.
 The Gulf and Atlantic, like a provoked and angry giant,
 can awake from its seeming lethargy,
 overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land,
 and spread chaos and disaster.

During this hurricane season we turn to You, O loving Father.
 Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with passing of time.

O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our beloved Mother,
 we ask you to plead with your Son on our behalf,
 so that spared from the calamities common to our area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem, where a stormless eternity awaits us. Amen.

Composed in 1957 by Most Rev. Maurice Schexnayder, Second Bishop of Lafayette, after Hurricane Audrey
