FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Jesus said to his disciples: "Be on guard! Be alert! You do not know when that time will come. It's like a man going away. He leaves his house and puts his servants in charge, each with their assigned task, and tells the one at the door to keep watch. Therefore, keep watch because you do not know when the owner of the house will come back, whether in the evening, or at midnight, or when the rooster crows, or at dawn. If he comes suddenly, do not let him find you sleeping. What I say to you, I say to everyone: Be on guard!" Mark 13: 33-37

Dear Parish Family,

We are happy and grateful to celebrate another Christmas with everyone – and we would love to share our joy with our community as well. During December, Saint Cabrini Church (on behalf of our Spiritual Life Committee) will be collecting non-perishable food items to donate to the food pantry at the Osceola Council on Aging. Donation boxes will be located inside the entrance to the Church at all December Masses. We appreciate your support. Thank you!

Laura Block

Your Parish invites you to celebrate the following Feasts/Holy Days at our neighboring Catholic Churches or to view online a Livestream of the Mass of your choice. We are unable to offer Mass at the School on: Dec. 08, 2023 (Friday) – Immaculate Conception;

Jan. 01, 2024 (Monday) – Mary, Mother of God; and

Jan. 08, 2024 (Monday) – Baptism of the Lord.

A diocese is a community of believers in a particular place, living in unison with all other dioceses throughout the world - the visible center of unity being the pope. A bishop is the center of unity for the parishes within the diocese. The Diocese of Orlando was established on June 18, 1968 and is comprised of people dedicated together to the service of each other, the service of the worldwide Church, and to society at large. This presentation will cover the history of the Diocese of Orlando from its roots to today and beyond.

MEET OUR SPEAKER!

Renae Bennett has been the Archivist for the Diocese of Orlando since 2012. Prior to that she worked in public libraries beginning at age 16 shelving books, and has moved herself up to an Executive Administrator. She has a bachelor's degree in History and Humanities from the University of Central Florida, and a master's degree in Library and Information Science from Florida State University. Renae is a parishioner of Saint Margaret Mary Parish, and sings in the Sunday morning choir.
