MARCH 30, 2025

FOURTH (LAETARE) SUNDAY OF LENT

Now the tax collectors and sinners were all gathering around to hear Jesus. But the Pharisees and the teachers of the law muttered, "This man welcomes sinners and eats with them." Then Jesus told them this parable: "There was a man who had two sons. The younger one said to his father, 'Father, give me my share of the estate.' So, he divided his property between them. Not long after that, the younger son got together all he had, set off for a distant country and there squandered his wealth in wild living. After he had spent everything, there was a severe famine in that whole country, and he began to be in need. So, he went and hired himself out to a citizen of that country, who sent him to his fields to feed pigs. He longed to fill his stomach with the pods that the pigs were eating, but no one gave him anything. When he came to his senses, he said, 'How many of my father's hired servants have food to spare, and here I am starving to death! I will set out and go back to my father and say to him: Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son; make me like one of your hired servants.' So, he got up and went to his father. But while he was still a long way off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion for him; he ran to his son, threw his arms around him and kissed him. The son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.' But the father said to his servants, 'Quick! Bring the best robe and put it on him. Put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet. Bring the fattened calf and kill it. Let us have a feast and celebrate. For this son of mine was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.' So, they began to celebrate. Meanwhile, the older son was in the field. When he came near the house, he heard music and dancing. So, he called one of the servants and asked him what was going on. 'Your brother has come,' he replied, 'and your father has killed the fattened calf because he has him back safe and sound.' The older brother became angry and refused to go in. So, his father went out and pleaded with him. But he answered his father, 'Look! All these years I have been slaving for you and never disobeyed your orders. Yet you never gave me even a young goat so I could celebrate with my friends. But when this son of yours who has squandered your property with prostitutes comes home, you kill the fattened calf for him!' 'My son,' the father said, 'you are always with me, and everything I have is yours. But we had to celebrate and be glad, because this brother of yours was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.'" Luke 15:1-3, 11-32

2025 Marian Essay Contest Open for Entries

Current 5th - 8th grade students enrolled in a Diocesan Catholic School; Parish Faith Formation; Religious Education; Youth Ministry or other Catechetical Formation Program are invited to participate in the 2025 Marian Essay Contest. The winner will receive a $1,000 scholarship to be used for Catholic School tuition; Faith Formation fees; domestic Mission Trips; San Pedro retreats; or to donate to the Diocesan Parish, School, or Ministry of their choice. This year's theme is "Mary, Pilgrim of Hope." Mary trusted God, even when it was hard, and never lost hope, even when her Son was crucified. Can you think of a time when you had to trust God during a difficult situation? How did your Faith help you stay hopeful, and how can you be a witness of hope to others? The entry form and additional details can be found www.cfocf.org/mariancontest. Entries must be submitted by April 3rd. Winners will be announced the end of April, 2025. The Marian Essay Contest is administered through the Fr. Frank X. Zammit Endowment Fund at The Catholic Foundation of Central Florida, in conjunction with the Office of Schools and the Office of Laity, Family and Life. Questions (?), please contact Lisa Oliveras at loliveras@cfocf.org or (407) 246-7177.

CATHOLICISM 101: John Donahue presents the Life of Blessed Carlo Acutis and His Exhibit of Eucharistic Miracles from Around the World

Join us on Thursday, April 3rd, at 7 PM in the Parish Life Center for Catholicism 101 with John Donahue, founder, and content creator for @Truthcharting. John will be presenting to us about Blessed Carlo Acutis, his life story, and the website that Carlo created, cataloging over 150 Eucharistic Miracles from around the world. Blessed Carlo is the soon to be canonized "Patron Saint of the Internet." After listening to John's presentation about Blessed Carlo, you will have the opportunity to visit the Eucharistic Miracles Exhibit based on Carlo's website, right here at Most Precious Blood! This event is free and open to everyone!

Eucharistic Miracles Exhibit

Join us as we witness a collection of extraordinary events and unexplainable phenomena which serve as signs of the real presence of Christ. This traveling museum-like display features photographs and historical descriptions of Eucharistic miracles recognized by the Catholic Church. The exhibit, which was designed and created by Blessed CARLO ACUTIS, will be available for viewing at our parish from April 4th to April 11th from 10 AM to 3 PM daily. It will feature information of about 50 of the over 150 documented Eucharistic miracles from around the world. To learn more about the exhibit and about the life of this extraordinary young man, visit <https://oviedocatholic.org/eucharistic-miracles>. This event is free and open to everyone!
