DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Franciscus
1936 - 2025

O God, from whom the just receive an unfailing reward, grant that your servant Francis, our Pope, whom you made vicar of Peter and shepherd of your Church, may rejoice forever in the vision of your glory, for he was a faithful steward here on earth of the mysteries of your forgiveness and grace. Through Christ our Lord.

Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him.
May he rest in peace.
Amen.

POPE FRANCIS' PONTIFICATE A TIMELINE

2013

● MARCH 13
Cardinal Jorge Mario Bergoglio of Buenos Aires, Argentina, is elected, becoming the first Jesuit pope, first pope from the Southern Hemisphere and first non-European elected in almost 1,300 years.

● JULY 8
Pope Francis makes his first trip outside of Rome to the Italian island of Lampedusa to highlight the plight of Mediterranean-crossing migrants.

2014

● JUNE 8
Pope Francis, Israeli President Shimon Peres, Palestinian President Mahmoud Abbas, Orthodox Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew of Constantinople and others gather in the Vatican Gardens to pray for peace in the Holy Land.

2017

● APRIL 13
Pope Francis celebrates Holy Thursday Mass of the Lord's Supper at a maximum security prison and washes the feet of 12 prisoners, including three women and a Muslim man who were preparing for baptism, continuing a practice he began as archbishop of Buenos Aires.

2016

● FEB. 12-17
Pope Francis meets Russian Orthodox Patriarch Kirill of Moscow at the Havana airport and signs a joint declaration in the presence of Cuban President Raul Castro. In Mexico, he celebrates Mass in Ciudad Juárez, bordering El Paso, Texas, with hundreds of thousands of people attending.

● DEC. 8
Pope Francis inaugurates a Holy Year of Mercy, opening the St. Peter's Basilica Holy Door and inviting churches around the world to also designate a holy door as part of his call for reconciliation.

2015

● SEPT. 19-27
Pope Francis travels to Cuba, Washington, D.C., New York and Philadelphia, addressing Congress, the United Nations and the World Meeting of Families, canonizing St. Junipero Serra and visiting the 9/11 memorial.

● AUG. 2
Pope Francis orders the revision of the Catechism of the Catholic Church to describe the death penalty as morally inadmissible and to affirm that the church "works with determination for its abolition worldwide."

2018

● APRIL 21
Pope Francis appoints three women as consultants to the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith, the first time women and laypeople were named as active contributors -- not support staff. They joined a growing number of women the pope has named to top-level positions at the Vatican.

2019

● FEB. 4
Pope Francis and Sheikh Ahmad el-Tayeb, grand imam of Egypt's Al-Azhar mosque and university, sign the document on "Human Fraternity for World Peace and Living Together" during an interreligious meeting in Abu Dhabi, United Arab Emirates.

● FEB. 21-24
Pope Francis convenes a global summit on child protection and abuse, bringing together nearly 200 church leaders -- presidents of bishops' conferences, the heads of the Eastern Catholic churches, superiors of men's and women's religious orders, survivors and Roman Curia officials. The summit at the Vatican included a penitential liturgy.

2022

● JULY 24-29
Pope Francis makes "a penitential trip" to Canada to meet with, listen to and apologize to members of Canada's First Nation, Métis and Inuit communities, especially those who experienced abuse or attempts at forced assimilation at church-run residential schools.

● JULY 4
The pope undergoes a three-hour scheduled surgery at a Rome hospital to remove part of his colon. Officials said it was required to treat diverticulitis, when bulging pouches in the lining of the intestine or colon become inflamed or infected. Throughout his pontificate he has suffered bouts of painful sciatica, and knee problems led him to start using a wheelchair in 2022.

2021

● MARCH 5-8
Pope visits Iraq amid sporadic violence continuing in the country and COVID-19. He honored those who remained faithful and worked to rebuild the country.

2020

● MARCH 27
In the midst of the coronavirus pandemic, Pope Francis prays and delivers his extraordinary blessing urbi et orbi (to the city and the world) during an evening prayer service from St. Peter's Basilica at the Vatican. St. Peter's Square was empty, and the service was livestreamed.

2023

● JAN. 5
Pope Francis presides over the funeral Mass for Pope Benedict XVI in St. Peter's Square. It was the first time in more than 200 years that a pope celebrated the funeral of his predecessor.

● MARCH 13

Pope Francis celebrates his 10th anniversary as pope.

● AUG. 31-SEPT. 4

Pope Francis visits Mongolia, the first time a pope has visited the country.

● OCTOBER

Pope Francis convenes the first of two monthlong sessions of the "Synod on Synodality."

● DECEMBER

Pope Francis approved and signed off on "Fiducia Supplicans," a document permitting blessings of those in irregular relationships, and which was strongly objected to by many church leaders.

2024

● OCTOBER
Pope Francis presided over the second monthlong session of the Synod on Synodality. In a surprise move, he signs his name to the final document drafted by synod delegates.

● APRIL 21
Pope Francis dies at 88.

● APRIL 20
Pope Francis makes his final public appearance on Easter Sunday.

● MARCH 20
Pope Francis is released from hospital after a 38-day stay.

2025

● FEB. 14
Pope Francis is admitted to Gemelli hospital, diagnosed with bronchitis.

● DECEMBER 24
Pope Francis opens the 2025 Jubilee Year of Hope at St. Peter's Basilica.

● OCTOBER
Pope Francis releases his final encyclical, "Dilexit Nos," on the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

Dwelling Place of the Trinity

“For the Lord has chosen Zion; He has desired it for His dwelling place.” (Psalm 132:13-14)

The Father chose Our Lady, in her Immaculate Conception, to be the dwelling place for His Son. Our Lady has a unique relationship with each of the Persons of the Trinity and she models for us our call to encounter the Trinity who also dwells within us through our Baptism. Our presenter, Jen Settle, will reflect with us on Mary’s unique relationships and encourage us to encounter the Trinity within our hearts.

FRANCISCAN PRAYER SERVICE FOR PEACE

Saturday, May 10, 2025
1:00-3:00 pm
St. Francis Hall

Lady Poverty, a fraternity in the Order of the Secular Franciscans, is hosting a peace service for all nations and religions. In the tradition of St. Francis of Assisi and his pursuit for peace during the Crusades, prayers and pleas for peace will be shared in multiple languages. We will gather for prayer inside and then process outside to the statue of St. Francis and the Peace Poles that were dedicated last year. Snacks and refreshments will be provided at the end of the service. Families are welcome and encouraged to attend. Students from Catholic schools will be participating.
