Happy 50th Anniversary of Priesthood to Father Richard Roy!

Born and raised in New Bedford, Massachusetts, Father Richard Roy graduated from Bishop Stang High School in North Dartmouth, and prepared for the priesthood at St. Mary's College in Kentucky and St. John's Seminary in Brighton. He was ordained a priest for the Fall River Diocese on May 10, 1975 by Bishop Daniel A. Cronin. His priestly ministry began as a parochial vicar at St. Theresa of the Child Jesus Parish in South Attleboro. In 1981, he was reassigned in that same capacity to Sacred Heart Parish, Taunton, and then St. Mary's, Taunton, while also serving as chaplain during those years at Coyle-Cassidy High School in that city. Following that, Father Roy served as parochial vicar at Our Lady of Grace Parish, Westport; St. Patrick, Falmouth; and St. Joan of Arc, Orleans. He was named pastor of St. Stephen Parish, Attleboro, in 1993, and returned to St. Joan Arc, Orleans, in 1996, this time as pastor. Ten years later, he became pastor of St. John the Evangelist Parish in Attleboro, where he remained until beginning his pastorate at St. Julie's in 2012, and remained here until his retirement in 2020. Through the years, Father Roy has served as spiritual director for several retreat movements, among them Cursillo; Emmaus; ECHO; and Engaged Encounter; as chaplain to several Knights of Columbus Councils; and has represented the Roman Catholic Church to the Cape Cod Council of Churches. After retirement on August 1st, 2020, he remained active in the Diocese of Fall River, pointing out that he has "been blest with the help of many retired priests in my pastorates, and now I look forward to filling in when I can." We are so happy to have Fr. Roy assisting during the winter and fall months in Lake Nona, and will acknowledge his milestone at all Masses next weekend (May 10/11).

Lady Poverty, a fraternity in the Order of the Secular Franciscans, is hosting a peace service for all nations and religions. In the tradition of St. Francis of Assisi and his pursuit for peace during the Crusades, prayers and pleas for peace will be shared in multiple languages. We will gather for prayer inside and then process outside to the statue of St. Francis and the Peace Poles that were dedicated last year. Snacks and refreshments will be provided at the end of the service. Families are welcome and encouraged to attend. Students from Catholic schools will be participating.
