JULY 06, 2025

FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

After this the Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them two by two ahead of him to every town and place where he was about to go. He told them, "The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field. Go! I am sending you out like lambs among wolves. Do not take a purse or bag or sandals; and do not greet anyone on the road. When you enter a house, first say, 'Peace to this house.' If someone who promotes peace is there, your peace will rest on them; if not, it will return to you. Stay there, eating and drinking whatever they give you, for the worker deserves his wages. Do not move around from house to house. When you enter a town and are welcomed, eat what is offered to you. Heal the sick who are there and tell them, 'The kingdom of God has come near to you.'" Luke 10:1-9

As elders in the Church and in our families, we carry the gift of life experience, deep faith, and enduring love. This talk explores how older adults can meaningfully support youth and families facing emotional and mental health struggles. Grounded in Catholic Social Teaching, compassion and cultural awareness, we'll reflect on the unique role of elders in offering spiritual encouragement, listening hearts, and gentle guidance. With inspiration from saints who modeled healing and hope, and insights from today's mental health realities, we'll discover practical ways to help our parishes and families become safe, supportive spaces for the next generation to thrive: mentally, emotionally, and spiritually.
