THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Saint Frances Xavier Cabrini Feast Day Weekend!

Some of his disciples were remarking about how the temple was adorned with beautiful stones and with gifts dedicated to God. But Jesus said, "As for what you see here, the time will come when not one stone will be left on another; every one of them will be thrown down." "Teacher," they asked, "when will these things happen? And what will be the sign that they are about to take place?" He replied: "Watch out that you are not deceived. For many will come in my name, claiming, 'I am he,' and, 'The time is near.' Do not follow them. When you hear of wars and uprisings, do not be frightened. These things must happen first, but the end will not come right away." Then he said to them: "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be great earthquakes, famines and pestilences in various places, and fearful events and great signs from heaven. But before all this, they will seize you and persecute you. They will hand you over to synagogues and put you in prison, and you will be brought before kings and governors, and all on account of my name. And so, you will bear testimony to me. But make up your mind not to worry beforehand how you will defend yourselves. For I will give you words and wisdom that none of your adversaries will be able to resist or contradict. You will be betrayed even by parents, brothers and sisters, relatives and friends, and they will put some of you to death. Everyone will hate you because of me. But not a hair of your head will perish. Stand firm, and you will win life." Luke 21:5-19

This year, Catholic Giving Tuesday for the Diocese of Orlando is on Tuesday, December 2, 2025. The Catholic Foundation of Central Florida leads a Catholic Giving Tuesday initiative, which encourages donations to support your Catholic Parishes, Ministries and Organizations. This initiative aligns with the global Giving Tuesday Movement, in response to the growing consumerism of Black Friday and Cyber Monday, and calls all of us to give back to our local community and fill the world with Christ's charity. In the U.S., Giving Tuesday 2024 (all faiths) inspired an estimated $3.6 billion in charitable gifts, a 16% increase over the previous year. This growing movement beautifully reflects the spirit of Christian stewardship and the call to generosity found in our faith. Giving Tuesday creates a moment when hearts are especially open and donors are already prepared to support the good works of their Churches and the Ministries that bring Christ's love into the world. Please be generous this Catholic Giving Tuesday! More to come!

The Rosary Ministry Needs Your Help!

Dear Friends, for the past 5 years, we at Saint Cabrini have had a wonderful Rosary Ministry - lead by a dedicated Team. Every week, Rosaries are prayed in English, Portuguese, Tagalog, and Spanish. The Rosary is a beautiful and powerful prayer given to us as a gift by our Blessed Mother. Our Parish Rosary is prayed every Sunday, in a different language each week. It is also live streamed on social media. In order to continue, we need your help in leading the Rosary. We would like to have at least two teams for each language. If you would like to help us, please reach out to me at 321-229-6029. Thank You and God Bless, Laura Block

2025 USCCB Special Pastoral Message on Immigration

Issued on Nov. 12, 2025 at the Fall Plenary Assembly of Bishops in Baltimore, and approved for immediate distribution.

As pastors, we the bishops of the United States are bound to our people by ties of communion and compassion in Our Lord Jesus Christ. We are disturbed when we see among our people a climate of fear and anxiety around questions of profiling and immigration enforcement. We are saddened by the state of contemporary debate and the vilification of immigrants. We are concerned about the conditions in detention centers and the lack of access to pastoral care. We lament that some immigrants in the United States have arbitrarily lost their legal status. We are troubled by threats against the sanctity of houses of worship and the special nature of hospitals and schools. We are grieved when we meet parents who fear being detained when taking their children to school and when we try to console family members who have already been separated from their loved ones.

Despite obstacles and prejudices, generations of immigrants have made enormous contributions to the well-being of our nation. We as Catholic bishops love our country and pray for its peace and prosperity. For this very reason, we feel compelled now in this environment to raise our voices in defense of God-given human dignity.

Catholic teaching exhorts nations to recognize the fundamental dignity of all persons, including immigrants. We bishops advocate for a meaningful reform of our nation's immigration laws and procedures. Human dignity and national security are not in conflict. Both are possible if people of good will work together.

We recognize that nations have a responsibility to regulate their borders and establish a just and orderly immigration system for the sake of the common good. Without such processes, immigrants face the risk of trafficking and other forms of exploitation. Safe and legal pathways serve as an antidote to such risks.

The Church's teaching rests on the foundational concern for the human person, as created in the image and likeness of God (Genesis 1:27). As pastors, we look to Sacred Scripture and the example of the Lord Himself, where we find the wisdom of God's compassion. The priority of the Lord, as the Prophets remind us, is for those who are most vulnerable: the widow, the orphan, the poor, and the stranger (Zechariah 7:10). In the Lord Jesus, we see the One who became poor for our sake (2 Corinthians 8:9), we see the Good Samaritan who lifts us from the dust (Luke 10:30-37), and we see the One who is found in the least of these (Matthew 25). The Church's concern for neighbor and our concern here for immigrants is a response to the Lord's command to love as He has loved us (John 13:34).

To our immigrant brothers and sisters, we stand with you in your suffering, since, when one member suffers, all suffer (cf. 1 Corinthians 12:26). You are not alone!

We note with gratitude that so many of our clergy, consecrated religious, and lay faithful already accompany and assist immigrants in meeting their basic human needs. We urge all people of good will to continue and expand such efforts.

We oppose the indiscriminate mass deportation of people. We pray for an end to dehumanizing rhetoric and violence, whether directed at immigrants or at law enforcement. We pray that the Lord may guide the leaders of our nation, and we are grateful for past and present opportunities to dialogue with public and elected officials. In this dialogue, we will continue to advocate for meaningful immigration reform.

As disciples of the Lord, we remain men and women of hope, and hope does not disappoint! (cf. Romans 5:5)

May the mantle of Our Lady of Guadalupe enfold us all in her maternal and loving care and draw us ever closer to the heart of Christ.

More information about Migration and Catholic Social Teaching can be found on the USCCB's website: <https://www.usccb.org/resources/migration>. The USCCB invites Catholics to consider 'The Cabrini Pledge' <https://www.usccb.org/cabrinipledge> as a reminder of our immigrant heritage, and a call to deeper engagement with our faith in response to current events.
