THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

Now that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem. They were talking with each other about everything that had happened. As they talked and discussed these things with each other, Jesus himself came up and walked along with them; but they were kept from recognizing him. He asked them, "What are you discussing together as you walk along?" They stood still, their faces downcast. One of them, named Cleopas, asked him, "Are you the only one visiting Jerusalem who does not know the things that have happened there in these days?" "What things?" he asked. "About Jesus of Nazareth," they replied. "He was a prophet, powerful in word and deed before God and all the people. The chief priests and our rulers handed him over to be sentenced to death, and they crucified him; but we had hoped that he was the one who was going to redeem Israel. And what is more, it is the third day since all this took place. In addition, some of our women amazed us. They went to the tomb early this morning but didn't find his body. They came and told us that they had seen a vision of angels, who said he was alive. Then some of our companions went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said, but they did not see Jesus." He said to them, "How foolish you are, and how slow to believe all that the prophets have spoken! Did not the Messiah have to suffer these things and then enter his glory?" And beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, he explained to them what was said in all the Scriptures concerning himself. As they approached the village to which they were going, Jesus continued on as if he were going farther. But they urged him strongly, "Stay with us, for it is nearly evening; the day is almost over." So, he went in to stay with them. When he was at the table with them, he took bread, gave thanks, broke it and began to give it to them. Then their eyes were opened and they recognized him, and he disappeared from their sight. They asked each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he talked with us on the road and opened the Scriptures to us?" They got up and returned at once to Jerusalem. There they found the Eleven and those with them, assembled together and they said, "It is true! The Lord has risen and has appeared to Simon." Then the two told what had happened on the way, and how Jesus was recognized by them when he broke the bread. Luke 24:13-35

Home of the Black Bears

April 13, 2026

To the Parishioners and Church Leadership of Saint Frances Xavier Cabrini,

First and foremost, I want to apologize for the miscommunication on Saturday, April 11, which caused confusion for everyone and almost delayed Mass. Since taking over as principal of Narcoossee Middle School (NCMS), Father Charles Viviano and I have had a great relationship and an understanding of the importance of holding Mass at NCMS every Saturday and Sunday. It has always been our commitment to the Church that, as hosts, we coordinate weekly to ensure a smooth transition into the weekend. Unfortunately, this past Saturday, we fell short of our commitment and placed undue stress on both the parishioners and the Church leadership. Please know that we are taking steps to ensure this doesn't happen again, because we understand the implications it has for the Church as a whole. Thank you for your patience.

Sincerely,

Dr. Francisco Rivera Mieles
Principal of Narcoossee Middle School
