FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Jesus said: "Truly I tell you, anyone who does not enter the sheep pen by the gate, but climbs in by some other way, is a thief and a robber. The one who enters by the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep listen to his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has brought out all his own, he goes on ahead of them, and his sheep follow him because they know his voice. But they will never follow a stranger; in fact, they will run away from him because they do not recognize a stranger's voice." Jesus used this figure of speech, but they did not understand what he was telling them. Therefore, Jesus said again, "Very truly I tell you, I am the gate for the sheep. All who have come before me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep have not listened to them. I am the gate; whoever enters through me will be saved. They will come in and go out, and find pasture. The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full. John 10:1-10

Holy Communion to the Disabled at Mass

Question: Why does one Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion roam around the Church with the Eucharist before going to their station?

Answer: That Eucharistic Minister is bringing Holy Communion to our parishioners who may be disabled or unable to walk up to receive.

Question: How does the Eucharistic Minister know who wants to receive Communion at their seat?

Answer: Anyone who wishes Holy Communion brought to them (or a family member) should raise their hand and get the attention of the roving Eucharistic Minister as they approach. Also, our Ushers (if informed ahead of time when entering Church) are able to notify that Eucharistic Minister as well - as the Eucharistic Minister passes by.
